

When you choose an independent retailer (like this one)...

You keep more money in the local community

You support new product innovation and diversity

You help the environment

You support local jobs

You help strengthen your town's appeal to the wider community and encourage visitors

